

Wisdom Ways Center for Spirituality Labyrinths: Resources to Rent

Contact Rev. Barbara Kellett for information or to arrange for rental.
barbarakellett@gmail.com or 651-636-8419 ext.1

LABYRINTHS

The pickup and return location is Roseville, unless noted otherwise.

1. 36 feet classic Chartres style, eleven-circuit, cream color with purple path, octagon canvas. This spectacular, dramatic labyrinth is good for small or large groups. Created by Veriditas, Grace Cathedral in San Francisco. $150
2. 28 feet classic Chartres style, eleven-circuit. Each of these two lovely labyrinths is a good size for up to 30 walkers at a time. $150 each.
 - A. Cream octagon canvas with green path. Created by Robert Ferre'. Pick up and return is at the Carondelet Center.
 - B. Cream octagon canvas with purple path. Created by Veriditas, Grace Cathedral in San Francisco.
3. 23 feet Waters Weaving seven-circuit Santa Rosa style with blue, rust and sage green paint on a round canvas. Created by Marilyn Larson during the Katrina crises. The fee will be given to Habitat for Humanity, Hurricane Katrina relief efforts. $125
4. 18 feet five-circuit with several blue and brown acrylic colors on a square, cream canvas. This labyrinth is called the Watermark or Beach labyrinth and invites the walker into the atmosphere of water and sand. Children and adults love to walk and play on this labyrinth. Created by Marilyn Larson. $100
5. 12 x 13 feet Stonetree Spiral, five-circuit. Earth tones paint on a rectangular canvas. This original design invites the walker into the embrace of the World Tree. A spark of Spirit shines in the crown. Good for an individual or a small group. Created by Marilyn Larson. $50
6. 12 x 12 foot Tree of Wisdom labyrinth takes the walker from the roots to the branches of this lovely image in browns and greens. Good for a small group or individual. The labyrinth may also be hung on a wall. This canvas was laid out in the parlor of the Carondelet Center for several years. Commissioned by Wisdom Ways and created by Marilyn Larson. Pickup and return is at the Carondelet Center. $50
7. 12 feet classic style, seven-circuit, shades of green and yellow paint on a square canvas. Good for an individual, small group, or to be used in conjunction with the larger labyrinths. Created by Marilyn Larson. $50
8. 7 feet Heart of Chartres style, three-circuit, pink and gold paint on a square canvas with a rose theme. Suitable for wall or floor use. It can be walked with room to stand in each of the petals of the central rosette. A person may sit within the center or lay down and still be contained within the circle. Created by Marilyn Larson. $50
9. 28 x 76 inches Meander Wand, cream rectangular canvas with purple labyrinth-like geometric pattern. Designed by Alex Chapman for a person to lie down on it or to display as a wall hanging. $20

~ Please turn page over – more resources listed on back. ~

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES

Enhance your creative experience with the labyrinth in various ways with additional resources to rent. The rental of multiple items may be obtained at a discount. Please ask.

Scarves – A collection of over 100 scarves and fabrics from around the world create a multi-cultural, warm and dramatic atmosphere. This global collection adds color, texture and a sense of deep play to any labyrinth event. $1 per scarf or fabric; $25 for 50; $50 for 100.

11 Large fabrics with Celtic, African, and other global designs to cover tables, pianos, bookcases, or other spaces. $2 each 100 colorful feather masks may be used in a variety of ways to enhance your event. $.25 each or $25 for all.

Books – A collection of over 60 books, images, and other supplies about labyrinths will enhance your event. $25

Instruments – A multi-cultural experience. A collection of over 100 shakers, drums, rain sticks, bells, and other instruments from around the world. A group can simply follow the beat of a leader or begin to create its own music. The instruments are easy to play. $1 per instrument; $25 for 50; $50 for 100.

7 singing bowls – From small to large, these beautiful brass bowls may be placed at the entrance to the labyrinth or at various stages on the labyrinth for the walker to ring. $5 each or $25 for the set.

6 white Chrystal singing bowls – These bowls are ideal for ceremony or displaying with candles in them. The tones are extraordinary. $10 each or $50 for the set.

2 large Tibetan gongs – A gong may be used to call the group to attention or to formally begin the walk. $10 each.

Finger labyrinths may be used for private meditation or for people who are not able to walk the labyrinth. Children use them with joy. $10 for several.

Laminated prints: 135 (13 x 16 inches) by Georgia O'Keeffe or 50 (12 x 13 inches) by Susan Seddon Boulet. These glorious prints can be placed on the floor surrounding the labyrinth or be used to decorate the space. People may be invited to take a meaningful print into the labyrinth with them. $20 per set.

Rocks or shells in baskets offer a touch of nature. Participants are invited to take a rock or shell to keep as a reminder of their walk. $5

Simple art supplies and/or collage materials are available for the participants use after their walk. $10

Twenty-four 8 inch beveled round mirrors. There are multiple ways to use these mirrors. $5 for the set.

The Earth Ball – This dramatic, inflatable ball has a diameter of 5 feet. The continents and oceans are painted as the earth is seen from space. $25 For the Earth Ball contact Bob Friedman: 612-722-4705 or rmarcf@usfamily.net. Pick up and return is south Minneapolis.

The rental of multiple items may be obtained at a discount. Please ask.

Contact Rev. Barbara Kellett for information or to arrange for rental.
barbarakellett@gmail.com or 651-636-8419 ext.1